

Haas

Center for Public Service

<http://haas.stanford.edu>

Postgraduate Public Service Program

The new Postgraduate Public Service Program has been launched to help the Haas Center better serve students interested in public service work after graduation. Support is available in the following three areas:

Postgraduate Fellowships

Launch your public service career with a fellowship experience you'll never forget! The Haas Center administers four paid postgraduate fellowship programs that provide support for graduating Stanford students who wish to make contributions to public service organizations and communities.

John Gardner Public Service Fellowship

10-month placement working with a senior figure in a government office, nonprofit organization, or foundation. Contact Megan Swezey Fogarty, megan.fogarty@stanford.edu, (650) 725-2870.

Tom Ford Fellowship in Philanthropy

11-month placement in a U.S. philanthropic foundation related to the fellows' interests and experiences. Contact Megan Swezey Fogarty, megan.fogarty@stanford.edu, (650) 725-2870.

Stanford Public Interest Network (SPIN) Fellowship Program

10-12 month position working in a U.S. organization with a public interest focus, with an alumni mentor. Contact Abby Conover, aconover@stanford.edu, (650) 723-8375.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Huang Teaching Fellowship (jointly administered with Volunteers in Asia)

One or two-year fellowship at Ouyang Yu Middle School in Hunan Province teaching English in a rural setting. Includes $1,000 service project stipend. Contact Anjali Mutucumarana, china@viaprograms.org, (415) 904-8033.

Resources on Excellent First Job Opportunities

Graduation looms large in the future. You are feeling:

- a. Excited to get on with your life
- b. Passionate about making a difference
- c. Overwhelmed by your options
- d. All of the above

Make an appointment with our staff to discuss your answer! Working with the Career Development Center, we provide resources and advising to help you find your first postgraduate opportunity. Whether you are interested in taking Capitol Hill by storm, teaching outdoor education with AmeriCorps in the Catskills, founding an organization with an Echoing Green Fellowship, or anything between or beyond, we are here to help! Contact Abby Conover aconover@stanford.edu.

Alumni Connections

Speaking of resources, you are about to become a part of one of the most powerful networks in the world: the Stanford alumni community. As a current student, you can already access that network and use it to explore your career options. Stanford alumni are doing amazing things to change the world. Let us help you connect with them. Contact Megan Swezey Fogarty, megan.fogarty@stanford.edu.

Postgraduate Public Service

Please see reverse.

Considering your post-Stanford options?

Check out these web resources to get started!

General information on Public Service Careers

<http://haas.stanford.edu/index.php/item/1799> Key Resources: Public service job search strategies, links to relevant resources and a searchable database of 250+ public service fellowship and internship opportunities.

<http://cardinalcareers.stanford.edu/research/publicservice> Key Resources: Information on public service careers and opportunities in specific fields, links to the CDC's resource library, opportunities to network with alumni and instructions on how to make an individual appointment with a career counselor specializing in public service careers.

http://www.theventureconsortium.org/public_interest Key Resources: Click the "exploring options" link to research job, fellowship and graduate school opportunities by sector, geography or issue area.

Nonprofit and International Opportunities

<http://www.idealists.org/career/career.html> Key Resources: Information on starting your nonprofit job search, the Idealist database of nonprofit job and internship opportunities, one-year service opportunities, working abroad, etc.

<http://www.actionforchange.org/getalife> Key Resources: Information on jobs, internships, fellowships, career resources, graduate study programs, and post-graduate alternatives where you can work for social change.

<http://cardinalcareers.stanford.edu/icareers> Key Resources: Information on international careers and opportunities in specific fields and by geographic area, resources on fellowships and funding to go abroad, instructions on how to make an individual appointment with a career counselor specializing in international careers.

Government Opportunities

<http://www.makingthedifference.org> Key Resources: Student-centered information on federal careers, including tips on searching and applying for federal jobs and internships and information on federal opportunities available by interest area.

<http://www.usajobs.gov> Key Resources: Search and apply for federal jobs on the official job site of the United States Federal Government.

<http://www.studentjobs.gov> Key Resources: Listing of government agencies with student employment opportunities; "e-Scholar" link offers informational on different educational opportunities including specific fellowships, internships, scholarships, and grant opportunities offered by Federal Government.

Connect with Alumni

<http://www.stanfordalumni.org/career/home.html> Key Resources: Career and networking resources of the Stanford Alumni Association; sign up for the Stanford Career Network and to search for alumni who share your interests.

<http://mentoring.stanford.edu> Key Resources: Join Stanford Alumni Mentoring Program (SAM), an on-line mentoring program that aims to connect undergraduates from all backgrounds with alumni in one-on-one mentoring relationships for career planning and goals.

<http://cardinalcareers.stanford.edu/networking/tips> Key Resources: Nervous about networking? Visit the CDC's networking site, take a deep breath and get connecting!